GET THEM BEFORE THEY GET YOU

This isn't a sit-down-at-a-table sort of game — it's a secret missions game that you play whilst doing other stuff.

It starts with each player getting six secret missions and doesn't end until someone's completed three. So, whether you're at home, on holiday, at a party or even playing another game, keep an eye on the other players... there's no telling what they'll have planned.
